Berlin, September 19. N. S.

LETTERS from Warlaw of the 13th advise, that General Lacy, with the Body of Troops under his Command, was advanced beyond Grodno, and that the other Body of Muscovites which were encamped at Smolensko, had also entered Poland.

Dublin Castle, Sept. 17.

This Day arrived his Grace the Duke of Dorset, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom. His Grace was received at his Landing by their Excellencies the Lords Justices, and by the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Sheriffs of Dublin. The Foot Forces in Garrison, with the Militia of the City, lined the Streets through which his Grace (attended by a Regiment of Horse, the Battle-Axe Guards, and the other Officers attending the State) proceeded, amidst the Acclamations of a vast Concourse of People, to the Castle. Upon which the great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and answered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out upon College-Green; and his Grace received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Persons of Distinction upon his safe Arrival in this Kingdom.

Hampton-Court, September 20.

This Day M. de Loss, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Saxony, had his first private Audience of His Majesty, to deliver his Letters of Credence; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Harrington, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of Her Majesty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Grantham Her Majesty's Lord Chamberlain, and conducted by the Master of the Ceremonies.

He had afterwards a private Audience of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales; to which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton-Court, Sept. 23. This Day M. de Loss had his first private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke; to which he was introduced by the Master of the Ceremonies.

Hampton-Court, September 24.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto George Proctor, Esq; the Office of Steward, or the Stewardship of all the Lordships, Manors, Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, to the Honour of Windsor and Castle of Windsor in the County of Berks belonging or appertaining, and of the Courts of Record in the same; and also the Office of Clerk to the Constable of the said Castle or Fort of Windsor, and the Office of Clerk of the said Castle or Fort, and the Custody of the Seals of the said Courts, in the Room of John Owen, Esq; deceased.

Hampton Court, Aug. 25, 1733.

Whereas some malicious and wicked Persons did in the Night between the 12th and 13th Day of May last past, unlawfully enter the House, Brewhouse, and Gardens, of Robert Norman, at his Powder Mills in Mouldsey, in the County of Surry and did him considerable Damage, by breaking his Locks and Windows, and cutting to Pieces divers Pannels of Wainscot, and destroying his Trees in the Garden, and untiling Part of his Out-houses: His Majesty, for the better discovering and
